8 1.9.32 to Mr Arnildas he suggested that the scale were fixed without his knowledge in this allowance. It is respectfully submitted that the authorities may have taken the consent of the Valivadar in writing to the scale fixed before they recommended the lease & him for 20 yrs

2) The proposal to cancel the lease is for order —

4.9.32

1) The M.C's proposal may be approved — It would have been well if the M.C. had, before making his first recommendation, made sure whether the Valivadar would agree to the conditions or not.

...ence. ...the correspondence ending with your Memo No. ?.Dis. ...31- 3 dated 30-6-33, forwarding a copy of G.O. No.R 53-33/Muz.300-31-2 ...ated 30/27-6-33 sanctioning the recommendation to lease out the Inam lands endowed to Sri Kodur Subbanna Venkatappa in Melamere Village, Arsikere Taluk, to Vaidyasrinivasachar, Vanivalidar of the temple for a period of 20 years, subject to his confirming to the scale fixed by the Deputy Commissioner from time to time, I have the honor to state that when a notice was served on the Vanivalidar, he presented a petition on 1-.-32 to the Amildar stating that the scale not been fixed without his knowledge for I 100/- and that it is unjust. The Amildar reports that the rate of paddy then was from I 3- -(to I 4/- per palla and the income accrued would be less than I 100/- and therefore the temple might continue as a village institution.

The lease right of land was sold on 2?- -33 as per orders of the Sub Division officer by the Amildar and it proved futile. One Lakshmana Rau wanted to take up the lease right for I 40/-.

The Amildar reports that as the income is less than I 100/- the temple might be treated as a village institution. The Sub Division officer, Shimoga, recommends the same.

Under the circumstances, I request that Government may be moved to cancel their order of 26rd/27th June 32 and that the temple might be treated as village institution and the Vanival continued to Vaidya Srinivasachar on condition of his performing the pujas and other usual sevas as before and keeping the temple in good condition.

The connected records accompany.
